WILLIAM W. PRATT

William Pratt's credit union career spanned more than three decades. He began his 33-year career in 1935 as a charter member of the PHILADELPHIA DUPONT-GRASSELLI EMPLOYEES Federal Credit Union. Two years later, he was elected to the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association Board of Directors (formerly League). From 1942 to 1965, he served as executive director of the Association and as director of research and development from 1965 until his retirement in 1968. When he first started working at the Association, there were 550 credit unions in Pennsylvania. Only half of them were members of the Association. When he retired in 1965, there were nearly 1,300 credit unions in the Commonwealth. More than 90 percent were members.

Pratt played an active role in the national movement, serving as CUNA director from 1938 to 1941. He was director of CUNA Mutual Insurance Society from 1939 to 1965, and served as president for two terms. He was the founder of CUMIS Insurance Society.

In his honor, the William W. Pratt Lifetime Achievement Award to the Outstanding Credit Union Professional of the Year is presented annually by the Pennsylvania Credit Union Association.
