

Andrea Stritzke

As Regulatory Counsel for PolicyWorks, Andrea Stritzke continuously tracks state and federal laws and regulations impacting credit unions, while assisting clients in complying with changes in the law. In addition, Andrea delivers many of PolicyWorks' regulatory audit products and develops vendor management programs for credit unions.

Andrea is a nationally recognized speaker on the Bank Secrecy Act, lending, and various other compliance topics. Prior to joining PolicyWorks,

Andrea worked as a judicial clerk for the Iowa Court of Appeals. She has also worked as a staff attorney for the Nebraska Court of Appeals.

Education

- J.D., University of Nebraska College of Law
- B.A. in Business Administration, University of Nebraska

Memberships and Designations

- Member, Nebraska State Bar Association
- Admitted as House Counsel in Iowa
- Earned CUNA's Credit Union Compliance Expert Designation (CUCE) and Compliance Specialist Certification